Our Story

PRISM is a next-generation social dating platform built for everyone — every sexuality, every identity, every story. Like a prism splits light into every color of the spectrum, PRISM brings together people of all orientations and backgrounds into one safe, vibrant, and connected space.

We combine the discovery of dating apps with the daily richness of social media — so you can find a match for tonight or a community for life. Built with privacy-first principles for users everywhere, especially those in regions where identity can still be a risk.

Privacy & Safety Framework

Ghost Radius

Users never share exact GPS. Location is fuzzy — district/neighborhood level only.

Users set their own radius: 1km to 50km. The map shows an approximate zone, not a pin.

Panic Button

One tap: profile is hidden, session cleared, and a decoy screen appears

(e.g. a weather widget or news feed). Critical for users in homophobic regions.

Stealth Mode

Profile invisible to anyone not already matched. App icon can be changed by the user to a neutral name/icon on their phone home screen.

Age Verification

Hard block on under-18 signups. Selfie liveness check required to activate account. No stored biometrics — verified only, then discarded.

Encryption

All messages end-to-end encrypted. Profile data encrypted at rest.

Payment data handled entirely by Paystack/Stripe — never stored on PRISM servers.

Reporting & Moderation

One-tap report on any profile or message. Fast moderation queue.

Three verified reports trigger automatic temporary suspension pending review.

PRISM

Every Color. Every Person. One Platform.
